

In defense of the King James Bible”

1 Sam 16:7 ...for the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the LORD looketh on the heart.

Because I am wearing a suit, you think I have credibility and that I know what I am talking about. You judged by outward appearance.

Also, I still have my smart tooth. Don't ever loose your smart tooth. A smart tooth is one of the ones in front and on top. People will think you are a dumb hillbilly if you loose one of those teeth. I don't know what a tooth has to do with intellgence, but you loose all credibilty if you loose a tooth in that area.

Again this is pre-judging a persons intelligence by outward appearance.

These are some techniques people use to deceive people ...say a translating committee??? College professor?? Titles can be used as a cloak to decieve people too.

God says we should judge righteous judgement.
John 7:24 Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.

I got into a debate on the internet with a fool. I usually avoid arguing with a fool and I should have known better because the Bible says there is no winning when you deal with a fool. Answer a fool, Don't answer a fool, both verses are right. Your damned if you do and your damned if you don't.

The Bible says...
Proverbs 14:7 Go from the presence of a foolish man, when thou perceivest not in him the lips of knowledge.

Sound advice, but it this case I let my flesh get the better of me. This person got my dander up. He said people should read the bible of their choice and we shouldn't be so judgemental. He was angry at "King James Only ism"

I told him you should never read the bible of your choice, but you should read the Bible of God's choice. I said people don't even concider God's opinion or even concider asking God. They are only concerned about their own selfish preferences.

I don't know if I got him mad or if I got him thinking. Maybe both. He was an idiot. I probably wasted my time.

I want to preach a short message called "In defense of the King James Bible"

One of the arguments for the new versions is "The earliest manuscripts (Vaticanus and Siniaticus) say it this way..." They think because a manuscript was dated to be closer to the original date, that it must be more accurate and that later manuscripts had the errors.

Just because a manuscript is older doesn't make it more accurate. What makes it accurate is the crediblity of the wittness. Where did the manuscript come from? Who wrote it?

If you think of the Bible lineage as a stream and that Satan put a pipe dumping pollution close to the source of the stream.

If you dip your cup upstream near the pollution pipe, you will get a cup full of poison.

If you go further downstream, the pollution has had a chance to settle to the bottom and get filtered out. 10 miles down stream the water is now purer. That is why God said he purified his word seven times...

Psalms 12:6 The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.

Can people get saved using the other versions? Yes, it still has water in it, but they will be weak and sick in their doctrine. The King James is pure water. It is healthy to drink lots of it every day.

Satan got busy early trying to corrupt what God said. There were Bible corrupters in the very beginning even in Paul's day...

2 Cor 2:17 For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ.

So there are very early corrupt manuscripts available to translate from. The Kings James translators had to discern which manuscript was the correct reading. They did this very meticulously and prayerfully.

Paul had to correct the early church from preaching and teaching false doctrine. They eventually got it right.

Examples...

Gal 1:6 I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:

Gal 1:7 Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

Gal 3:3 Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?

He even had to correct the Apostle Peter...

Gal 2:11 But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.

Gal 2:14 ...why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?

So just because something is older, does not make it right. God makes it right. The scripture is our final authority as to what is right.

So we see there was a lot of corruption and error going on in the early church and they had to get things corrected eventually. Old habits had to be broken and weeded out. Old religious beliefs tried to mix in, but had to be eventually filtered out.

Acts 17:10 And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming thither went into the synagogue of the Jews.

Acts 17:11 These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

When you get saved, the Spirit of God enters into you, and now your eyes become open to the truth. But the lost world does not get it, nor can they get it until they get saved.

1 Cor 2:14 But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

John 14:16 And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever;

John 14:17 Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.

John 8:32 And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

John 16:13 Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will show you things to come.

John 14:14 He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall show it unto you.

New versions take out verses about the diety of Christ. They do not glorify him.

As a matter of fact, the polluted manuscripts don't just change or omit random verses like spelling errors or matters of oversight or pure copying errors. But the errors are a deliberate attack on specific verses on the diety and doctrine of Jesus Christ. That was not a coincidence, it was a deliberate conspiracy by the workers of darkness. It takes a saved discerning spirit to determine which manuscripts are correct.

God is not the author of confusion. Try to follow along.

Now continuing on using the Nutty Idiots's Version...

When they had eaten the fruit Eve looked at Adam and said..."Weez naked."

Adam flexed his muscles and looked at Eve and said "Name's Bond...James Bond"

Then Eve said to Adam..."You got any money...Honey? I need to go to the mall and buy me a new dress and matching shoes and a handbag."

Adam reached into his back pocket to get his wallet.

Then Eve said..."Honey, I got news for you, that ain't your back pocket."

Adam said "Well that stinks, now she tells me."

All those other versions "stink" They make me gag and puke.

I like my water clean please.

Man can write anything and label it as a Bible on the cover, but that does not make it a Bible.

The Bible is not a joke. It is serious business.

Don't change it to make it more colorful to please your own wicked preferences.

Don't dumb it down it to make it easier to read.

Where is it a requirement that the Bible was supposed to be easy to read anyway?

"Run Spot run" is easier to read, but that is not a bible.

Why dumb down the Bible? ...So stupid people can read it? Don't be stupid, get educated.

Leave God's Holy words alone. They are pure and profitable.

Don't drink polluted water.

Be content with the pure healthy mana of the KJV.
